BPX: The Black Party® Expo & Bazaar
This Ain't Your Daddy's Trade Show...Or is It?

Behind The Scenes At The World's Sexiest Party
Benefiting The LGBT Center

On March 20, The Saint At Large, the New York-based organization behind the notorious fetish-oriented The Black Party®, will debut the BPX: The Black Party Expo & Bazaar.

Billed as "Behind The Scenes At The World's Sexiest Party" and benefiting The LGBT Center, The Black Party Expo & Bazaar, pulls back the leather curtain, granting anyone with $20 access a peek into the exclusive The Black Party® netherworld--and a chance to properly "gear up" for the night's big event.

Attendees will be free to drink, dance, ogle and gawk as they meet favorite adult film stars and power-shop for the very best in leather and fetish fashions, adult films, books, toys and erotic art, all while mingling under the stunning theatrical installations erected for the night's big event.

Entertainment throughout the afternoon will be hosted by the outrageous Acid Betty and include scores of the hottest gay porn stars, a 30 years of fetish fashion show, music by Spank Zine's DJ Will & Sean B and a non-stop parade of street performers, dancers and infamous "strange live acts."

Those anxious for a pre-The Black Party® fix, can pick up the very limited edition Spank Zine: Exposed, created just for The Black Party® Expo, featuring specially commissioned and curated artwork reflecting the themes of this year's The Black Party®.
